Galloway Township, NJ- To honor longtime faculty member Dr. Nancy Ashton, who passed away in 2012, The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey is holding a memorial event to remember her life, career and contributions to the feminist movement and to the college.

The memorial will be held Sunday, March 24, 2013, at 1 p.m. in the Alton Auditorium, located on the College's main Galloway campus. The School of General Studies, the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences, the Psychology program and the Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies program are sponsoring the event.

Attendees will remember Ashton through musical performances and speeches that highlight the milestones in her life and her impact on Stockton College and the surrounding community.

The event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served following the memorial.
