Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging (SCOSA) is sponsoring a jewelry making workshop for area older adults on May 22, 2011 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Noyes Museum of Art of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. The museum is located at 733 Lily Lake Road in the Oceanville section of Galloway. There is a $30 materials fee charged by the presenter, Bonnie Eger, payable at the door.

This easy, fun class allows anyone to create a beautiful necklace, earrings, or bracelets using beads, wire and a clasp with a wide assortment of materials provided for the materials fee.

Seating to this event is limited and pre-registration is required. Interested older adults should write to SCOSA at SCOSA/SOBL, RSCNJ, PO Box 195, Pomona, NJ 08240 or email Anita Beckwith, Program Manager at abeckwith@hughes.net indicating their interest and providing their name, address, phone number and email address.

Information on SCOSA and scheduled events can be found on their website at www.stockton.edu/scosa.
